INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION FOR THE DESIGN OF THE GYEONGGI-DO JEONGOK MUSEUM Republic of Korea

Paris, 29 November 2005

The Gyeonggi Provincial Government in Korea, launches an international project competition, in a single stage, for the architectural design of a museum on the archaeological site of Jeongok-ri.

Considered to be one of the most important Palaeolithic sites in Korea, Jeongok-ri is of crucial importance for the interpretation of the geographic distribution and development of the Palaeolithic culture and human evolution.

In conformity with the UNESCO-UIA regulations, this competition has been approved by the International Union of Architects – UIA

OBJECTIVES AND PROGRAMME

The Museum, of a gross area of 5 000 m<sup>2</sup>, will be located near the site where the archaeological excavations are being pursued.

The project should make use of the proximity of the excavation site and highlight the striking qualities of the site and the archaeological objects to be exhibited.

The natural topography and geology of the site should also be integrated as also its exceptional location beside the Hantan river.

The Museum will be both an educational and entertainment place, devoted to local cultural and historic heritage.
